

CANADIAN ASSERTS CHANGE MUST COME

Tariff Relations With the Dominion, He Says, Must be Adjusted.

TO TRADE WOOD FOR GRAIN.

Products of Canada Which Abound to Be Sold in American Markets—A Notable Speech.

(Special Correspondence.)
Boston, March 25.—In an address to the Intercolonial club and within sight of Bunker Hill, an Englishman, Arthur Hawkes, of the Canadian North-west railway, today declared that the era of independence with the Dominion of Great Britain and the Dominion of the United States is a thing of the past. He said that the era of independence is a thing of the past, and that the era of the Dominion of the United States is a thing of the past. He said that the era of the Dominion of the United States is a thing of the past, and that the era of the Dominion of the United States is a thing of the past. He said that the era of the Dominion of the United States is a thing of the past, and that the era of the Dominion of the United States is a thing of the past.

tariff, many United States houses have established branch factories in Canada—a result of our tariff which probably would never have come about if your statement of the early 60s had been big enough to perpetuate the reciprocity treaty of 1854.

A LOOK INTO HISTORY.

Mr. Richard Griggs, the able trade commissioner for Canada appointed by the imperial government to organize a service that will go for British trade in Canada similar work to that which is so admirably performed by your own consular representatives, estimated a few years ago that at least $125,000,000 of capital from the United States had been put into branch industries. "I could find 10,000 men who work in the head offices of big business houses in New York, Boston, or Chicago—who imagine that because they work in the head office they are a peg above the fellows who are on the frontier of the business, creating the trade on which the head office and all its employees live. They are little Georges, without their predecessors' excuse."

OLD SOLDIER MAKES STRONG STATEMENT

John Lynch is an inmate of the Soldiers' Home at Monto Vista, Colo. In a recent communication, which he desires to be given the widest possible publicity, he says: "Cooper's New Discovery medicine was a Godsend to me, and I am recommending it to my old comrades in the Home here. I had stomach and liver trouble for years. My sleep was so broken that I never got a good night's rest. My entire system became affected. I felt weak and tired all the time, and was declining rapidly in spite of treatment by doctors and other remedies which I used. For twenty years I took more or less medicine of various kinds, with little benefit. "I was finally induced to try Cooper's New Discovery, and it has made me sound and well. There is not a sign of liver or stomach trouble left, and I feel wonderfully strengthened and invigorated. "All the vital organs, the blood and nervous system, the recuperative forces are supported by the stomach, which is therefore the conservator of life and health. When the stomach has been abused, all sorts of disorders ensue, maladies of most kinds being due to derangement of its functions. Indigestion and dyspepsia are the most common results. The liver becomes inactive, creating biliousness and worse, the bowels become constipated, and their failure to oust the fecal matter poisons the entire system. The kidneys also pay the penalty of this neglect—suffering and disease soon gain control. "If your health is not all that it should be, get a treatment of Cooper's New Discovery at once. Don't delay; the germs of disease work all the time. We are agents for the Cooper medicine—Smith Drug Store at 'The Busy Corner'."

Stories of Thrift

A young man lived on the car line. It wasn't far to his work, but he rode to and from work every day. This cost about $5 a month. "His doctor induced him to take exercise. He discontinued the cars and saved that $5. "This money went on a savings bank account. It was his first venture in saving. "He is still walking to and from work, but more than that, he has learned a valuable lesson in saving, and saving is teaching him to be thrifty. "It is not necessary never to ride in order to save money, but it's far better to undergo even a hardship, than to spend all you make. "Save something. Put it in this bank potted semi-annually. Where it will earn 4 per cent, compound interest. UTAH SAVINGS & TRUST CO. No. 235 Main Street. IN THE BUSINESS HEART.

STATE BAR TO MEET.

April 2 Set as Date of Important Gathering of Barristers.

A meeting of the State Bar association will be held in the south courtroom of the Federal building on April 2, at 2:30 p. m. This is an adjournment of the regular annual meeting of the association held last January. The principal business to be discussed relates to the amendment of the constitution in the following particulars: Holding two meetings a year in place of one. Fixing the first Saturday after the first day of the month in the months of April and October for holding such meetings; providing for a banquet after the April meeting and a smoker or other special function after the October meeting; defining the classes of members and fixing the qualification and dues and providing a procedure for the suspension of members. The main object had in view by the association in considering these amendments is to extend the scope of the usefulness of the association to the members of the bar and to awaken a livelier interest on the part of attorneys in the organization. It is desired that all members of the bar, regardless of whether they are now affiliated with the association, be present. After the meeting and commencing about 6:30, a banquet of the association will be held at the University club. All the members of the association are entitled to attend this banquet free of charge. All members of the bar, regardless of whether they are members of the association, are cordially invited to attend the banquet. C. S. Baldwin, president of the bar association, will preside at the banquet.

Judge Andrew Howatt will be official toast master. A choice menu has been prepared by the manager of the University club and after this has been served toasts will be responded to as follows: "Looking Backward," Hon. J. E. Booth, Provo; "Looking Forward," B. E. Rich, Salt Lake; "Lawyers' Veracity," Joseph Chee, Ogden.
